Hi Brian, and thank you for reaching out. I will follow up to find a time to connect. Our bureau remains focused on these issues and interested in our partnership.

Best,

Marcela

> Hi Marcela – not sure if you or your team were able to join our call last Friday to cover the work that our Trust and Safety team does across the company, but wanted to circle back with you individually to hopefully follow up on the conversation we started at the Summit. We are meeting with Michael Camilleri on Friday to do a deeper dive on our work in the Northern Cone. As a next step I'd love to gather our teams in the US and LatAm for a conversation about how we might move ahead with a partnership to address the concerns you and the Administrator have raised with respect to misinformation.

Great—look forward to connecting soon. We will see if we can consolidate and cover as much as we can with one briefing, unless you tell us it's helpful to meet separately on any of the issues raised.

Likewise! Your name came up again when discussing migration misinformation driving more people to make the trek through the Darien gap. Thanks,

I also know we are working with Michael C. to schedule a briefing for later this month—happy to work to combine our conversations or to meet with you separately. Either way—look forward to connecting again.
