Hi Colin,

Circling back on this, would love to find a time to speak with you all. Also, FYSA, some of our senior execs will be in town in early December and would love to see the Administrator. We'll reach out under separate copy for that.

Many thanks,
Josh

Though of course 230 is a US domestic regulatory issue, as you can imagine, the foreign policy and national security implications are significant, beyond CVE efforts, extending to human rights, freedom of the press etc.
