Yes but maybe they realized that our colleagues in DC have spoken with someone from Facebook and maybe they want to regroup to decide who is speaking to us for what! haha!
We'll soon find out I guess!

Hi Tara,

Apologies for the delayed reply. Would you be available on Wednesday at 9:00 am (Amman local time) for a virtual meeting on MS Teams? My colleagues from USAID and Economic section are also available to join.

Best,

Hello Kenana

Thank you so much for the connection, pleasure to meet you all.

Would love to discuss further the level of your engagement in Jordan and understand the work you are doing. We are very keen to understand specifically about the regulation and legislation coming from Jordan that could impact our sector, like the data privacy law being finalized at this moment.

Perhaps we can meet this week to discuss?

Thank you in advance

Kind regards,

Dear Tara,

It was great talking to you yesterday and happy to make the introductions for you.

I would like to e-introduce you to colleagues from a couple of sections in the Embassy Amman. They're copied on this email for easy reference.
